THE KNIPP FAMILY TREE

The name of "Knipp" is, as we understand, a German name, but as far as it is possible to trace back, our paternal forefathers first lived in West Virginia and the one, our forefather, who later was the father of James Knipp, moved with his family and settled in Fentrice County, Jamestown, Tennessee.

James Knipp, born January 14, 1810 and ^{None}Mary Jane Glayebrooks, born April 18, 1818, were married on January 28, 1836. James and ^{Nancy}Nancy Jane with their family of boys moved to Metcalf County, Edmonton, Kentucky in 1857. As you can tell from copies of an old family Bible, the "Knipp" name used to be recorded as "Knip." One can assume, the spelling was changed to "Knipp" about 1900.

Five sons were born to James and Nancy Jane Knipp:

- 1a. John A. Knipp, born February 18, 1837
- 1b. Pleasant ~~DoC~~ Knipp, born February 13, 1839

- 1e. William O. B. Knipp, born June 29, 1848

Our family members are all descendents of Alvin Kalo Knipp and this family tree records only members in his branch.

1c. Alvin ^{Lee}Kalo Knipp, the third son in this family was born March 3, 1841, and was married to Marie Jane Clark on January 27, 1863. Alvin Kalo Knipp died on October 23, 1905 and Marie Jane Clark Knipp died on April 28, 1918. To this marriage was born 6 children, (five sons & one daughter.)

- 2e. Hubert Ephram Knipp, born 8-13-1873

As each generation is listed below, I have used number 1, 2, 3, etc. for the different generations, with the letters a, b, c, etc. for the children in each family. I have also listed each family and the children, grandchildren, etc. before moving on to the next family; such as Eugene Elonyo Knipp's family, then followed by Samantha Kaywood Knipp's family.

Mayflower Passenger List

Also see Governor Bradford's Accounting

- ❖ (GEB MD 18,1,2+) Proof of the name of the ship that brought these first pilgrims is found in the fourth page of the first volume of the Plymouth Colony Records of Deeds wherein Governor Bradford writes "The fales of their grounds which came first over in the Mayflower according as thier loses were cast ." (1623)

Bradford further tells us that her burden was "about nine score." Additional studies determined her master to be Christopher Jones.

(GEB) " Between 1620 and 1630 a "Mayflower," or "Mayflowers," crossed the seas three times. One in 1620 carried the Pilgrim Fathers to New Plymouth; one in 1629 carried Higginson's party to Salem; and one in 1630 carried Winthrop's party to Charlestown. It has generally been assumed that these three voyages were made by the same ship; but the strong probability is that the voyages of 1629 and 1630 were not made by the ship that sailed in 1620." According to Bowman the name Mayflower for ships was uncommonly common, with numerous ships of that name trading from numerous ports abroad.

(Hotten) William Trevore and ____ Ely, two crew members; are commonly, but incorrectly reckoned in the number of the first company of passengers for the Colony; BRADFORD himself says: "Two other seamen were hired to stay a year; when their time was out they both returned." Accordingly he says of the Mayflower company: "These being about a hundred souls, came over in the first ship." Afterwards he adds: "Of these one hundred persons who came over in this first ship together, the greatest half died in the general mortality, and most of them in two or three months' time." Omitting those two hired sailors who returned, and counting the person that died and the child that was born while on the passage as one passenger, we have the exact number---one hundred of the Pilgrim Company, "who came over in the first ship." And, as fifty-one died the first season, this enumeration makes good those other words of the historian, that,"the greater half died in the general mortality."

Robert Latham & Susanna Winslow - Felonious Cruelty

, Plymouth, Plymouth Colony

In an incident that will shock many, the Plymouth court records show that Robert Latham who married Susanna, the daughter of John Winslow and his wife Mary Chilton, brutally and willfully mistreated his servant boy, John Walker, thus causing his death. Equally as disturbing, Susanna was found culpable as well--though not prosecuted.

(Stratton, Eugene Aubrey, FASG. Plymouth Colony: Its History and People 1620-1691.)

" On 31 January 1654/55 a coroner's jury was called to view the body of Latham's servant boy, John Walker." The jury found:

that the body of John Walker was blackish and blew, and the skine broken in divers places from the middle to the haire of his head, viz, all his backe with stripes given him by his master, Robert Latham, as Robert himselfe did testify; and also wee found a bruise of his left arme, and one of his left hipp, and one great bruise of his brest; and there was the knuckles of one hand and one of his fingers frozen, and alsoe both his heeles frozen, and one of the heeles the flesh was much broken, and alsoe one of his little toes frozen and very much perished, and one of his great toes frozen, and alsoe the side of his foot frozen; and alsoe, upon the reviewing the body, wee found three gaules like holes in the hames, which wee formerly, the body being frozen, thought they had been holes; and alsoe wee find that the said John was forced to carry a logg which was beyond his strength, which hee indeavoring to doe, the logg fell upon him, and hee, being downe, had a stripe or two, as Joseph Beedle doth testify; and wee find that it was some few daies before his death; and wee find, by the testimony of John Howland and John Adams, that heard Robert Latham say that hee gave John Walker som stripes that morning before his death; and alsoe wee find the flesh much broken of the knees of John Walker, and that he did want sufficient food and clothing and lodging, and that the said John did constantly wett his bedd and his clothes, lying in them, and so suffered by it, his clothes being frozen about him; and that the said John was put forth in the extremity of cold, though thuse unabled by lamenes and sorenes to performe what was required; and therefore in respect of crewelty and hard usage he died.

In the Latham-Walker case, the community view can be seen in the aftermath, when on 4 March 1654/55 Latham was indicted for felonious cruelty to his servant John Walker, age about fourteen, by unreasonable correction, by withholding necessary food and clothing, and by exposing Walker to extremities of the seasons, whereby he died. The trial jury found him guilty of "manslaughter by chance medley," and he was sentenced to be burned in the hand and, having no lands, to have all his personal property confiscated. Latham's wife, Susanna, as noted in chapter 9, was presented by the grand jury for being in great measure guilty with her husband in exercising extreme cruelty toward their late servant John Walker. In her case, however, the presentment continued without trial for three years, until the court on 1 June 1658 ordered that she would be held for trial if anyone wished to prosecute her for the offense, but no one came forth, and the court ordered the presentment erased from the records."

Hofmann Family History

(A lot of this information came from Hilda "Aunt Sissy" Kock when David Hofmann needed family background for a junior high school project.

Generation 1

Charles Hofmann, Sr.

b. 5-4-1849 State of Nassau, Germany. Came to Cincinnati, OH, March 1854 at age five. He died Sunday July 23, 1930 at age 81yr 2mo 23days. He married Mary Hettrick at Harrison, Hamilton Co., OH. She was born 5-23-1841 at Harrison and died 1-28-1920 at 78yr 8mo 5da. Charles Sr was said to be the youngest enlisted man in the Civil War. Too young to bear arms, he carried the flag. He was honored with a plaque which hung in the Harrison OH Courthouse at one time. He had a furniture, upholstery and mattress shop in Harrison OH. He also was a salesman for Stillie Doulmire Co who built fine furniture in Cincinnati. His territory was the east coast as far as New York City; he called only on very fine stores. He was well educated, loved music, and let each child pick an instrument of their choice. We have no information on his parents or siblings. (Above information from Hilda) (Paul told Donna that Charles arrived at age 14 and was a drummer boy in Company K)

Children of Charles Hofmann Sr and Mary Hettrick:

Charles F, Jr., b. 12-5-1869 in Cincinnati, OH; died 5-8-1952 at Fayette County Indiana Hospital.

Mary (may be Marie but called Mary) F. Hofmann, b. 12-28-1871 at Harrison, OH. On 9-12-1906 she married C.A. McLaughlin at Cincinnati, OH. At time of brother Charles' death in 1952, she was living in Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co., OH.

Edward, b. 3-1-1874 at Harrison, OH. Lived in Lawrenceburg, IN, after marriage. Still reported living there in 1952. Mrs. John Klueber and Mrs. Marietta Witte of Lawrenceburg may be daughters; they were mentioned as nieces when William Meade Hofmann died after 11-1965. (Donna knows nothing of Mrs. John Klueber, however she visited Marietta Witte in Florida and her son Judge Carl Witte in Aurora or Lawrenceburg, IN; she has not found the addresses for me. Marietta has a brother "Boob." She has two other children Harlitta (fe) and Lana (fe))

Tillie, b. 1-21-1876 at Harrison, OH; d. 3-21-1905. (Matilda M. according to Donna)

Anna, b.2-15-1878 at Harrison, OH. Married 10-3-1902 in Harrison to ? Bentley. They lived in Cincinnati or Harrison.

William Meade., b. 9-28-1879 at Harrison, Ohio; died after 11-24-65. Married Gertrude R. Stonecipher(sp) in Milton 6-1-1902. They had no children. He graduated from Harrison High School but was a member of the Milton Christian Church. Reported living in Harrison OH in 1952. Worked at main PO in Cincinnati in parcel post area. Both buried at Rest Haven Memorial Park, Plainfield Road, Hamilton Co., OH. (1900 Wayne County census shows Wm. M. Hofmann born 9-1880 in OH as a boarder with Sarah Hathaway. He was a railroad station agent. He said his father was born in Germany and his mother in Ohio)

Francis "Fannie", b. 11-22-1882 at Harrison OH. Never married. D. 9-1961 in 79th year.

Louis (or Lewis), b. 9-28-1884 at Harrison OH, never married. Still in Harrison in 1952.

Generation 2

Charles F (no name) Hofmann, Jr.

B. 12-5-1869 in Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., OH; d. 5-8-1952 at Fayette County Hospital, and buried at Glen Haven Cemetery in Harrison, OH. (1910 census lists his father as born Ger-German and mother born in Ohio.) He married Carrie Francis Wilmer (place unknown) on 8-3-1891. Carrie was born 8-3-1872 in OH, maybe Cincinnati; died 7-19-1941 (68 yrs 11 mos 16 days) in Milton, IN. of chronic myocarditis just a few days before their 50th wedding anniversary. She was buried in Harrison Ohio. (her parents listed as unknown on her death certif.) (1910 census shows her family as Hol-German) Charles was said to have started college to be a pharmacist when he met his wife and gave this up. Charles Jr was a streetcar conductor for the city of Cincinnati, then worked at his father's upholstery and mattress business in Harrison OH learning the business. He moved to Muncie where he did upholstery, then to Milton, IN where he also did upholstery. He lived in Milton 52 years. Carrie lived in St. ~~Aleusius Home Orphanage~~ ALOUSIOS from age 2 through age 18 because her parents had died. She was said to be of Holland descent (1910 census lists her father as Hol-German for birthplace; names not given). She left the home when she was 18 and did housework for families awhile until she married. (Seems like Jack said Carrie's ~~brother~~ brother was known and became a government officer, perhaps Judge Arthur, in Cincinnati.) I don't know for a fact but expect they were both buried in the Glen Haven Cemetery at Harrison OH. (Donna says cemetery is Crown Hill) It was a family tradition for several years to have a reunion/picnic there each Mothers Day or at least make a family trip there and have the picnic somewhere else. Later it was at Ed Hofmann's cottage on the Whitewater River near Brookville, IN. (1910 Wayne County census said they had been married 16 years but Oscar listed as age 16) Family members have indicated Carrie was a hard worker, serving as midwife and nurse to many in Milton; they also indicate Charles liked his beer too much and was often drunk to the embarrassment of his family. (Donna thought Carrie Francis may have "Mary" as another name.)

Children of Charles F Hofmann Jr and Carrie Wilmer were:

Oscar Henry "Ox", b. 6-9-1893; d. 8-26-1965. He was born in Cincinnati, OH. The 1910 census shows Oscar age 16 a machinist in a shop. He married twice. His first marriage was to Beulah Rebecca Vance on April 21, 1914; she was born 2-27-1896 in Rushville IN to Samuel Vance and Sarah Doddy Vance. They had one child, Hilda Marie Hofmann on 11-18-1915 in Cambridge City.. She married Thurman Snyder after having a daughter Sharon. Sharon married Don Reid. Hilda Marie "Mickey" Snyder died 4-1-1995 in Marion at age 79. She was a graduate of Milton. Her ashes were buried in Luthrania in Richmond IN. (Oscar may have lived RR Liberty in 1941- Carrie's obit mentioned an Arthur living there) Oscar married Ardesta Murray 9-3-32. Ardesta was born 9-16-1901 and died 6-9-1993 (the 100th anniversary of Oscar's birthdate) Oscar and Ardesta had two children: Larry Eugene born June 24, 1935, and James Lee born Oct. 20, 1938. For more info see the Murray family history. Oscar was at Pinchurst Nursing Home in Centerville, IN for a short while before his death and either died there or at Reid Hospital, both in Wayne Co., IN. He and Ardesta are buried at Valley Grove, south of Milton, IN.
