

635. ÁRVORES DE FAMÍLIA

Cada árvore de família mostra os filhos, os pais, os avós e os antepassados relatados de um grupo da família. A fim de reduzir a redundância, qualquer grupo da família que for incluído completamente dentro de uma outra árvore de família não pode ser relatado separadamente.

Acima de cada uma das caixas do de cada família seccionada (fileira superior), um número de referência de continuação da árvore de família é mostrado se o descendente for um filho na árvore de continuação. Um número de referência da continuação está igualmente mostrado à esquerda de uma caixa do antepassado ou do pai se esse indivíduo tem irmãos relatados na árvore da continuação; e abaixo de uma caixa do filho/a (fileira inferior) se esse indivíduo tem filhos relatadas na árvore da continuação.

Nos casos de uniões múltiplas, um número de referência da continuação precedido por "=" é mostrado à direita de uma caixa do pai. Este número provê a árvore precedente e/ou seguinte em que esse indivíduo é mostrado com um outro sócio.

Nos casos de crianças adotadas (ou promovidas), a conexão parental é mostrada com uma linha tracejada e um número de referência da continuação precedido por "=" é mostrado dentro da caixa do indivíduo. Este número provê a árvore em que esse indivíduo é mostrado com seus pais naturais.
